

DAWID TOMASZEWSKI

Dawid Tomaszewski is a contemporary, luxury German brand encapsulating innovative high-end design attention to detail and quality. His womenswear clothing and accessories are the embodiment of the 21st century female, the ranges portray the strength, concept and femininity that today's woman appreciates. His clothes are experimental with an innovative design edge; Using industrial and unconventional materials, combined with inventive cutting, uncompromising tailoring and avant-garde, conceptual design with an aim to re-invent chic dressing.

Drawing on influences from contemporary art, architecture and music his work combines these ascendancies with his personal vision, of how a woman should be dressed, as well as his belief in old craftsmanship and his unwavering attention to detail. This reflects his desire to create clothing that will stand the test of time being wearable today, tomorrow and in ten years.

„I always had a clear vision of how a woman should be dressed.“ The Dawid Tomaszewski woman is a strong and assertive individual and understands the importance of reflecting this in her attire. A brave will and determination are dominant features of her life and her shopping, seeking out design that is strong enough to compliment her body and her mind. Both of his collections, the complex "New Couture line" and his new, more casual "Studio line" demonstrate his susceptibility to fashion and the needs of women.

Dawid Tomaszewski does not just want to become a commercially viable label but also a creative force within the arts.
