

ISABELL DE HILLERIN

Originally hailing from Munich, designer Isabell de Hillerin received her degree at the ‚Felicidad Duce‘ – Escuela Superior de Diseño y Moda in Barcelona in 2009. Following the completion of her studies she founded the eponymous womenswear label ISABELL DE HILLERIN in Berlin.

True luxury is to allow for things to grow. It is the label's aspiration to pay close attention to treating clothes with respect, as well as appreciating the craftswomen's time and work that went into creating a piece.

The designer sensitively reflects a personal interpretation of contemporary, sustainable fashion. Structures cuts are elegantly brought together with tradition forming innovative compositions and artisanery by the creative use of Romanian and Moldovan handcraft.

The label's DNA is more present than ever which gives each design a unique sensibility. Clean, masculine cuts are paired with textiles of feminine flair.
