

AUGUSTIN TEBOUL

AUGUSTIN TEBOUL is a womenswear label on the high end fashion market founded in 2010 by Annelie Augustin and Odély Teboul. The label offers exclusive garments and accessories on the edge between ready- to-wear and haute couture. AUGUSTIN TEBOUL is defined by an all-in-black, strong and feminine silhouette. The sophisticated designs, the craftsmanship and attention for details underline the combination of poetry and gravity balancing eccentricity with sobriety.

A touch of rock and roll combined with lascivious luxurious elegance . Annelie Augustin and Odély Teboul create dresses of strong sensuality without any compromise, neither regarding creativity nor the demand for quality .

AUGUSTIN TEBOUL is part of a new generation of emerging fashion designers. Having been awarded the European Woolmark Prize and the Dorchester Collection Fashion Award, the brand is on its way to become an established name in the industry.
