After six successful seasons at the Berlin Fashion Week, the beauty brand CATRICE is continuing its exclusive collaboration with the Berlin Mode Salon as an official partner and make-up sponsor. From the 19th of January until the 21st of January 2016, the Berlin Mode Salon is opening its doors at the Kronprinzenpalais to provide selected German design talents with a platform to present their Autumn & Winter Collections for 2016.

CATRICE conquered the Paris Fashion Shows for the first time in October this year and supported the Berlin couture label Kaviar Gauche with the presentation of its Bridal Collection for Summer 2016.

The individual, trend-setting make-up looks will once again be created in cooperation with celebrity make-up artist Loni Baur this season.
